  The Pumphouse Theatre.

Our usual home, The Stadium, is hosting a special event this week and is closed to regular visitors. Craiger tried to contact Kumeu Rotary asking if we can gate-crash their meeting – but hasn't had a reply. In the meantime a special event has surfaced...

Amanda, the Peace Corp worker who helped us with the project on Tongoa Island, finished her two year stint on the island last year and came to New Zealand for a year's working holiday. In the next few days she is starring as The Dog in the play Sylvia.

For something completely different we thought we'd like to go – and as we are homeless this week the Opening Night on Thursday would be a good night to pick.

The play starts at 7:30pm and the cost is $25 per person (No apology fee for those who can't make it).

The options for the evening are:

1. Meet at The Pumphouse at 7:15pm for the show (one Club cheque from the meal account will pay for the attendees)
2. Join Craiger at 6pm at The Goode Brothers Café for dinner first (each person to pay for their own meal seperately) and go on to the theatre from there

Date:	Thursday 3 rd June 2010
Goode Brothers Café (Optional)
Time:	6pm
Where:	138 Hurstmere Rd Takapuna
Cost:	See website for menu: www.goodebrothers.co.nz (pay individually)
The Pumphouse
Time:	7:30pm to 9pm
Where:	Killarney Park Manurere Ave Takapuna
Cost:	$25 per person (paid with Club cheque)

More details at the end of the bulletin

Please RSVP to Heather by 5pm Sunday so we can book the seats at The Pumphouse... and give an indication to the restaurant as to how many will be there.

40th Birthday Party

A large group of people from as far away as Kerikeri turned out in force to celebrate the past 40 years of our Club. A great night with many shared memories.

Speeches were limited to 2 minutes each and we had a fascinating glimpse into the activities of the past.

Warren Mee, Tom Pearce and Graeme Douglas, three of our Founding Members, cutting the cake

Our 40th birthday cake
Made by Thea Poole of Cake Couteur to Lucy Riddell's special recipe

Members, past members, friends from both our Club and the Rotary world, Rotary banners, photos, memorabilia, flowers, balloons, videos... all turned it into a very festive occasion

Alan Morgan, Ken Labrum and Barbara Maddren

Attendees deep in conversation with the video playing in the background

Roger picking exactly the wrong raffle ticket and Derek with the raffle ticket draw
(The basket that the tickets were in was a gift from our villager friends in Vanuatu)

John and Jill Watkins

Peter Smith

Graeme, Milan and Jack having a catch up

Jack enjoying himself

Kent and Emma
One of the happy couples at the party

Jack (with his prize and flowers), Derek (with balloons) leaving after an enjoyable evening

The Small World:

Tom Pearce's daughter Alison was District Co-ordinator for Guides when Alan and I were Guide and Brownie Leaders. Two of his granddaughters are now Guide Leaders along with our daughter. The things you discover at Rotary parties...

This week's Raffles:

3 prizes with the Winners: Heather, Jack – and a visitor from Henderson

Raffle takings: $173

Bongabonga Village Water tank

A cheque for $1,360 came in the mail from the RAM (Rotary Against Malaria) committee this week to help with the repairs to the water tank on Tongoa Island. This is greatly appreciated.

If a dog has ever stolen your heart or your couch, this is the play for you!

By arrangement with Hal Leonard Australia Pty Ltd, On Behalf of Dramatists Play Service, Inc New York

It's the classic love triangle – husband + wife + dog

American playwright A.R. Gurney's delightful and unique romantic comedy tells the story of Greg and Kate, an upwardly mobile New York couple who have moved to Manhattan after years of child-raising in the suburbs.

Greg is disillusioned with his career in finance, while Kate's teaching career is beginning to take her places. After wagging work one day, Greg brings home a dog he found in the park—wearing a name tag engraved with "Sylvia".

A Brooklyn bred Lab/Poodle cross, streetwise Sylvia becomes a major bone of contention between husband and wife. She offers Greg an escape from the frustrations of his job in the midst of his mid-life crisis. To Kate, Sylvia becomes a love rival. And Sylvia thinks Kate is 'prejudiced against dogs'.

The marriage is headed for the rocks until, after a series of poignant and funny complications, Greg and Kate learn to understand that Sylvia has helped them adjust to the empty-nest phase of their marriage and she becomes a valued part of their lives.

In the play's 1995 off-Broadway debut, Sylvia played to full houses and elicited rave reviews with the role of the dog Sylvia originally played by Sarah Jessica Parker.

In The PumpHouse season production, young Auckland actor Amanda Prasow takes on the physically demanding role of Sylvia. With Denise Snoad and John Clarke playing Kate and Greg. –

Director: John Antony

Cast: Denise Snoad, John Clarke, Amanda Prasow, Rob Owens, Mel Roberts

Produced by Quotidian Creative – (Gill Saker and David Martin)
