CURRENT EVENTS

THEA POOLE - BUSINESS WOMAN, COMPANY DIRECTOR

www.cakecouture.co.nz

Thea first attended a cake decorating course in 1992. Within the year she became the teacher learning the material one week ahead of the students – and kept up the night classes for the next 8 years.

A marriage breakup led to a change from Hobby status to Business status. She started with decorating classes in the living room and followed this with a cake decorating business in a purpose built extension in the back yard. Finally she bought an existing struggling business and built it into a busy thriving one with an excellent reputation – and a current need for expansion.

Thea came to Rotary to tell us about her business and also to teach us how to create an icing rose (also known as play dough for seniors).

ROMAC

Litania, the young lady from Fiji with the distorted foot, had her operation on Monday. All went well and it turned out to be far simpler than first thought. She has been discharged from hospital and is now home with her Fijian host family in Glen Innes.

Two weeks in bed will be followed by a month in a walking cast and then it will be back to the islands.

Craig went with Litania to the Doctor's appointments, saw her after her operation and says all is well. Apparently Litania keeps looking at her new flat foot in total wonder.

The Fijian community has been wonderful with their assistance with hosting. Heather dropped by at her host's home last week prior to the operation and found her and 3 other young ladies of a similar age deep in card games (far more entertaining for her than staying with older Rotarians!)

Once she is up and around it will be good to take her to one or two of our local attractions, like Kelly Taltons, before she returns home. Ideas for outings welcome.

ODDITIES FROM THE NIGHT

Derek – contemplating a new career in icing surgery.... or something...

MEMBERS' NEWS

And the Chocolate Fish Award goes to Craiger – the only person who actually noticed that the Bulletin has undergone a Makeover.

JR:

After a month in hospital to try to track down problems with internal bleeding John finally underwent a very, very major operation on Friday 3rd July. He was warned that the chance of success was around 50/50 but by that stage options were limited. Although he made it through the operation his other health issues led to progressive organ failure. On Wednesday 14th July with the help of Hospice his family took him home. He passed away during the night.

John's funeral is on Monday 19th July 2010 at 12 noon. Davis Funeral Home, Central Park Drive.

DOWN UNDER

Dear HEATHER

The July edition of Rotary Down Under is in the email and will be online very soon, but we thought you might be interested in a sneak preview.

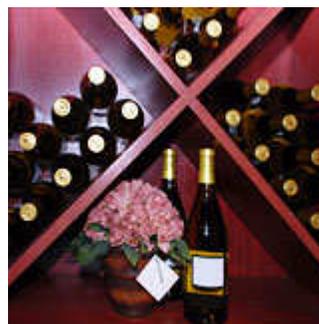

July is Changeover month, and there is no bigger changeover than that of the World President of Rotary International. Last month's RI Convention saw John Kenny hand over the reins to new RI President Ray Klinginsmith, and this month's RDU features five pages on the "Man from Missouri on a mission". This feature describes our new leader in the words of those who know him best, lifelong friends and colleagues who have known him as fellow student, colleague, fellow Rotarian and friend.

Rotarians are constantly looking to find ways to "bridge the generation gap". Western Australia's newest club, the Rotary Club of Crawley, has done it better than most. Its Charter night featured the induction of 71 new members, with an almost equal division between Baby Boomers, and those of Gen X and Gen Y. At 20 years old, Katherine Hazelwood is the club's youngest member, while David Goldstone is the oldest, at 74.

Of course, it doesn't really matter how old any of them are, as long as they live up to the club's new motto: "Giving has never been this much fun!"

We're giving away a dozen bottles of wine every month to one lucky reader who goes to our website and clicks on the link to our wine giveaway courtesy of our preferred wine supplier, Winemarket.com.au link, and follow the prompts. Great wine at great value!

The recent Council on Legislation made some significant changes to the way Rotary is governed. Arnold J Grahl, of Rotary International News reports on the issues that matter most.

Make sure you use your copy of ROTARY DOWN UNDER to help promote your club and Rotary within your community. Once you have finished reading it, drop it into the pile in the waiting room of your local doctor, dentist, solicitor or accountant. Be sure to include contact details in the space provided on the front cover.

For all your Rotary merchandise and supplies, go to www.rotarydownunder.com.au/shop or call (02) 9897 3118.

Email supplies@rotarydownunder.com.au and look for the 16-page catalogue that will come with every edition of ROTARY DOWN UNDER in August.
